PAW PAW, VAN BUREN COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1903.

Whole Number 2515.

Queen Quality

THE FAMOUS
SHOE FOR WOMEN

The First Requisite

The very first requisite of a shoe is that it shall fit the foot with absolute accuracy. Closely but not tightly. No waste space, yet no pressure. The "Queen Quality" Shoe is made so that

It fits the foot.

It fits it just as a Paris-made glove fits the hand. Have you ever noticed that no other shoe talks much about fit? They talk about "style" and "beauty" and "form" and other things that mean nothing. But they say little about FIT. They don't dare to.

"Queen Quality" fits because it is an entirely different construction which, by the way, adds many dollars to the weekly pay roll.

But the shoes fit perfectly.

Boots $3. Oxfords $2.50.

Special Styles 50c Extra. Fast Color Eyelets. Do not wear brassy.

In buying Monuments remember there is as great a difference in quality as there is in woods for durability. I handle none but the highest grade money will buy. I employ no agents, and can save you one-fourth in price below agent's prices. I keep Monuments on hand for your inspection, then there can be no deception; you know then whether you like it or not.

HOME COMING WEEK, PAW PAW, 1903.

AUGUST 10-17.

Jottings.

Lyman Cooper is seriously ill.
Born, Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lockwood, a nine pound boy.

A large number of Paw Paw people attended the circus at Kalamazoo yesterday.

Advertised letters: Mrs. Jennie Kelly, Mrs. Lon Thayer, Mr. Herb. Aldrich, Frank Wall.

Miss Josephine Osborn has resigned her position as teacher in the high school for next year.

Will Brown had fine home grown peas June 2, from his own garden. Will is hard to beat as a gardener.

The banquet for the alumni association will be furnished by the ladies of the Presbyterian aid society.

A. W. Showerman has a special contrivance for stopping trolley cars, to be used Sundays only. Have a cigar, conductor!

Word has been received here of the death of Lydia L. Conway-Eddy, last Saturday at her home in Seattle, Washington. No particulars are known as yet.

At the meeting of the Eastern Star, Wednesday evening, someone exchanged shawls with Mrs. C. C. Chappell. She would be glad to exchange again with them.

Geo. M. Harrison received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of his nephew, Geo. B. Harrison, at Traverse City, aged 40 years. He was a prominent lumberman.

The new timetable of the Pere Marquette will be found in this paper. The change that was heretofore advertised did not go into effect, the management of the road deciding not to make the change.

Don H. Walker, who has been in the real estate business in Paw Paw for some time past, has decided to move to Kalamazoo and open a real estate office in that city. He went to Kalamazoo, Wednesday.

The meetings of the Kalamazoo River Baptist association at the First Baptist church closed Wednesday evening after a very successful three days' session. Rev. Robert Gordon was ordained Tuesday evening.

On the 7th day of September, 1852, the following order was filed in the circuit court of this county: "It being understood that the board of this county having taken the care and custody of the court house from the sheriff of the county, the proper, responsible officer for that purpose, and said court house being dirty, neither having been sprinkled, swept or dusted; therefore, ordered by the court now here that said sheriff cause said court house to be sprinkled, swept and dusted before the opening of court this afternoon, and that the expense thereof be charged to the county."

The court, it seems, was bound to have clean quarters in spite of the board and regardless of expense.

The Chicago Record-Herald of Wednesday gave the news that the Pere Marquette has perfected arrangements with the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad company for independent terminals in Chicago, using the Grand Central station at Harrison street. It is not settled just how the road will get into the city, but it will probably be by building 20 miles from New Buffalo to some point in Indiana, connecting with either the Grand Trunk or the B. & O., and using their tracks into Chicago. It is possible that the connection may be made with the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern at Porter, using the tracks of that road to McCool, and thence the B. & O. into the city. At any rate, in a short time the P. M. will run its own trains into Chicago, instead of having hauled them in by M. C. engines and crews as at present.

About 35 members of Paw Paw lodge I. O. O. F., gave a pleasant surprise to Samuel Consolus at his home Tuesday night. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. Light refreshments were served.

Loyes Clute, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clute, died last Monday of scarlet fever. The burial was the same day at Prospect Hill cemetery. Rev. Stansbury conducted services at the burial, there being no funeral. Mr. Clute's father, mother and sister of Cass county were here.

Just 60 years ago to-morrow, Judge Ephraim Ransom made the following order: "From the small amount of business in the county of Van Buren, it is considered and determined by me that the public good requires but one term of the circuit court should be held in each year in said county, and it is hereby determined that such term shall be held on the first Tuesday of June in each year."

A pleasant company assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crandall Tuesday, June 2, in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of his brother Alfred and wife of Mendon. A brother in Kansas was unable to reach here on account of the recent floods in that state. The guests from out of town were Mrs. Mattie Michener and daughter June from Mendon, Silas Rawson, a brother-in-law, and niece, Miss Ella Smith of Decatur, and Master Glynn Nash of Marcellus. Table decorations were green and white. Covers were laid for 14. The bride and groom of 50 years were preceded to the table by the flower bearers, June and Glynn, the company following to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Michener. An elaborate dinner was served, after which the company returned to the parlor and were entertained by Mrs. Crandall and Mrs. Michener with piano solos and duets.

Memorial day was quietly observed by Brodhead post. Headed by martial music, Cummings and the two Bullards, the post marched to Prospect Hill at 9:30, where the usual services were held at the grave of Coleman P. Rawson. Other soldiers' graves were decorated by details appointed by the post commander. On return to the hall, the members of the Grand Army, their families and invited guests sat down to a bountiful dinner, after which an interesting program was given, martial music, patriotic songs by a quartette consisting of Messrs. Koons and Free, Mesdames Chappell and Harvey, who had also sung at the cemetery, recitations by the Misses Monroe and Bessie Heckert, Messrs. Valteau and L. H. Titus, and short addresses by Revs. Mather, Huffer, Stansbury, Linderman, Darling, Law and E. H. Harvey. An interesting feature of the occasion was when Post Commander DeHaven called attention to the gavel he used, made from laurel root from Lookout Mountain, which was presented to the post by Mrs. H. L. Johnson. Altogether, the observance of the day was a pleasant and appropriate one.
